

THE No.1 LADIES' DETECTIVE AGENCY

'Women understand what's happening. They are the ones with eyes'

Mma Precious Ramotswe is a kind, warm hearted and large African lady. She lives in Botswana, Gaborne and she loves her people, country and Africa. The people were her people, her brothers and sisters and that way she wanted to help them. So she started a private detective agency. The agency had a tiny white van, two desks, two chairs, and an old typewriter and the most important, a teapot and three large cups.

Mma Ramotswe was married but her husband left her and never came back, but she was happy because he beat her and once she had to go to the hospital because of him.

Mma Ramotswe has her special way of solving mysteries, by telling the truth and by helpful lying.

She has a best friend who owns a repair shop – Mr JLB Matekoni who helps her solving mysteries with little things. In the middle of the story Mr JLB Matekoni asks Mma Ramotswe to marry him but she declines him saying that she doesn't want to make the same mistake like before. But at the end of the story she marries him.

All the cases connect between themselves and that's something that makes the story even more interesting.

- Rra: Sir or Mr in Setswana, the language that most people in Botswana speak.
- Barsawa: Probably the first people in Botswana.
- Pula: Money of Barsawa.
