Jessica wanted to be a dance queen more than anything in the world and when she wanted something, she usually got it. But Bruce Patman was more difficult. Jessica was in love with Bruce but he never smiled at her or spoke to her. He was good-looking and rich and he was the only boy for her. But he didn't want Jessica.

In Sweet Valley High School everybody knows Jessica. Wants to be queen at the autumn dance in school. The dance is very important in the school year. Two of the students are king and queen of the dance and it is a big night for them. This year only one person can stop Jessica – Enid. The one day Jessica finds that Enid has a secret. Jessica thinks she can use this to help her – and she will play dirty to get what she wants.

She does these. But Enid's best friend is Elizabeth, Jessica's twin sister. Elizabeth and Enid fight, because she is the one who knows that secret. Elizabeth very soon knows that her sister plays a dirty game. Elizabeth tells all students to vote for Winston and not for Bruce. On this way Jessica plays her dirty game! Jessica is the queen, but the king isn't Bruce, the king is Winston. Jessica doesn't like him. But they must be together.
