

MADAM BOVARY-summary

The story is about life of Emma Bovary and her men. First part of the story is about Charles Bovary as a kid. Because he was much older than his class mates he had problems finding. After secondary school he started studying medicine. He fell his first medical exam and he became a second rate country doctor. He married a woman who died soon after marriage. Then he met Emma and fell in love with her. They married soon and moved to Tostes where Charles was working. Unfortunately marriage was not as Emma expected. She dreamed about love and that they will solve all problems with love as it is written in romantic novels. She compared her life to the one from novels and became depressed. Soon Emma became pregnant and Charles decided to move to another city with hopes of reviving her health. They moved to Yonville where Charles met Homais, the town pharmacist. Emma gave a birth to their first daughter Berthe. She felt disappointed because she wanted a son. Soon Emma met Leon, a law clerk. Emma realized that Leon loves her and she felt guilty about it but Leon decided to move to Paris to study law. His decision made Emma felt really miserable. Soon after Leon's departure, Emma met Rodolphe who was attracted by her beauty. They became lovers and had a passionate affair. Emma's husband did not suspect anything. His unconditional love and stupidity blinded him to her indiscretions. His friend Homais attempted an experiment at surgery to treat a club foot man named Hippolyte. During surgery he needs to call another doctor to amputate the leg. Disgusted with her husband's incompetence Emma throws herself in even more passionate love with Rodolphe. She spent a lot of money for gifts and suggests to run off together. She takes her daughter with them. Rodolphe soon becomes bored of Emma's affections. He leaves her. Disappointed Emma grows desperately ill and she might even die. Her husband had a big financial problems to pay her doctors and treatment. He takes Emma in opera in Rouen. There she meets Leon again. This meeting rekindles a flame between Leon and Emma. She had more and more financial debt from Lheureux. Over time Emma start to feel bored with Leon. She does not know how leave him. Because Emma did not pay her bills, Lheureux orders to seize Emma's property to compensate for the debt. She was scared of Charles' reaction when he finds bills. She needs to find a money to conceal her lost money. First she asked Leon if he gave her some money and on the last she asked Rodolphe. Because nobody had money she wanted, she involve in prostitution to get some money. He again refused her and she sees only solution in committing suicide. She takes arsenic and dies in horrible agony. After her deaths Charles found letters from Leon and Rodolphe. He died couple months after Emma. Berthe was sent off to work in fabric.
