

TREASURE ISLAND

Written by : R. L. Stevenson

Illustrated by: Waikit Jonny Ng.

Summary:

The story is about a treasure. It starts when a boy named Jim Hawkings gets a map of an island on which is a treasure. This treasure is from captain Flint - the worst pirate of all times. He takes the map and shows it to his friend squire John Frelawney. Then they buy a ship and they hire some sailors. It turns out that some of the sailors are pirates and they take over the ship. On the island they met a man called Ben Gunn. He has been on this island over three years. He helps them fight the pirates. After many fights on the island all of the pirates are dead. But they can't find the treasure. Then, Ben Gunn remembers, that he has putted the treasure into a cave, because one year before some pirates came and they were looking for this treasure. Squire Frelawney, Jim and other good man return home. They are rich.

- squire John Frelawney - he is a good, very kind man. He is very brave and smart. He was also rich before this journey.
- dr. Livesey - he is also good, kind man. He would help every man, if he was sick.
- Captain Bill - he was a man who gave the map to Jim. He was a good man, but a coward.
- Captain Flint - he was a pirate, the worst pirate. He buried the treasure.
- Long John Silver - he was ship's cook. He was a pirate. He was brave, very smart, at the end he became good,
- Captain Smollet - ship's captain. he was good, smart. He knows how to value people.
- Ben Gunn - he was marooned. He is very good man, would help anyone. Sometimes he is a little strange.
- Jim Hawkings - the main character. Sometimes very brave, sometimes a big coward. He is 17 years old, not very smart, but goodhearted.

I recommend this book because it is very good. Not only that is interesting and funny, but many words are new. Me for instant, I have learned at least 50 new words. Everybody who likes adventures should read this book.
