End of summer it was approaching quickly and with that school - my first day of primary school. Sometimes I couldn't wait and the other time I didn't want to go, I was scared. But I had to go. I didn't have other chance. One week before school I had my 7th birthday and for birthday present from my grandparents I got really nice school bag with horses. In front of school I went with my mother and some friend from kindergarden. There I met some strangers with who's I become really good friends in school years. We didn't wear a uniform. I wear blue skirt and white blouse. I didn't like the blouse but I wear it because I want to do an impression. When we stand in front of school I was very nervous because I didn't know what to expect. School was in center of Dravograd, next to the shop with school needed things and it was very nice and big. I remember some brown sculpture in front of school, on which I always sat on when I were wait my dad to come for me. When we entered in a classroom we got a cake and classteacher set that her name is. She was nice and friendly too, but I didn't like her because one time she didn't want to help me with my homework and she was strict. We ate the cake and when we were leaving the classroom we got yellow kerchiefs. My first day of school was very nice and I like to remember it.
