

THE WORLD OF WORK

People in the modern time, must works five days on week. They work and they earn a lot of money. It's important on which school somebody was walking. If that school is very well, then you can get a lot of money. But if isn't that school very well, then you can't get a lot of money. So I think the better is that you are going on good school. We know a lot of different jobs. Some of them you must works in the outside, at some jobs you must work inside. Some works you must work very hard and you get a lot of money, but in some works you work almost nothing and get the same a lot of money. You can work at night too. If you work at night or on Sunday, you must get two-times higher pay. The most important jobs are the government jobs. Some people make movies and they earn a lot of money. The actress is very important for the movie. They are very rich and the whole world knows them.
