Pablo Picasso (25.10.1881-1973). He learned to draw before he could talk. He was spoiled (edinček). He hated school. His father was an amateur painter and he gave his son his own palette and brushes. He was always breaking the rules of artistic tradition and shocked the public with his strange and powerful pictures. HE created more than 6000 paintings, drawings and sculptures.

Graffiti (graff) – roots in America. Man has always scribbled (ččkati) and drawn on the walls. Graffiti does not become a museum piece. It is wiped off the walls as soon as it is put there. Yet aerosol (sprej) has become a serious business to a grown number of young people (their personal stamp) and their messages are on the wall (a prehistoric man used his paintings as a way of communication). Graff can be an individual scribble, often just the initials of the artist, or something which is much larger and like mural (freska). Each artist has her own tag or signature and each piece of Graff is tagged. The motivation behind a piece of Graff can be sadness, frustration or relief.
