

CANADA

Canada is the world's second-largest country by total area and has a population of 33 million. It uses both, English and French as official languages.

Inhabited first by Aboriginal peoples, Canada was founded as a union of British and former French colonies. Canada gained independence from the United Kingdom in an incremental process that began in 1867 and ended in 1982.

Aboriginal tradition holds that the First Peoples inhabited parts of Canada for a very long time, and some archaeological studies support human presence in northern Yukon to 26,500 years ago, and in southern Ontario to 9,500 years ago.

For the past decade, after a period of turbulence, the Canadian economy has been growing rapidly with low unemployment and large government surpluses on the federal level. Today Canada closely resembles the U.S. in its market-oriented economic system, pattern of production, and high living. It is a constitutional monarchy with Elizabeth II, Queen of Canada as head of state^{[16][17]}, and a parliamentary democracy with a federal system of parliamentary government and strong democratic traditions.

A technologically advanced and industrialized nation, Canada maintains a diversified economy heavily reliant on trade--particularly with the United States, with which Canada has had a long and complex relationship--and abundant natural resources.

The name Canada comes from a First Nations word, kanata, meaning "village" or "settlement". Canadian culture has historically been heavily influenced by English, French, Irish, Scottish and Aboriginal cultures and traditions, and over time has been greatly influenced by American culture because of its proximity and the interchange of human capital between the two countries. The name Canada comes from a First Nations word, kanata, meaning "village" or "settlement".

Some questions

1. What's the population of Canada?33 million
2. What languages do the people speak?English and french
3. What's the name of money?Canadian dollar
4. Do it have a strong or weak economy?strong
5. Do they travel a lot? Yes