

The book Martin Luther King is talking about King's life. He did everything for free black people. He did not have a lot of friends.

MARTIN LUTHER KING

Michael Luther King is his real name but later he had his real name but later he had his name changed to Martin. He was born on January 15, 1929 in Atlanta Georgia. When Martin was young he did not understand anything. His best friend Warren was not going to the same school. But when Martin grew up he understands what was different between his friend and him. He began to dream of better future for black people. He stood for African – American civil rights movement and peace movement. He became a human right icon. In 1964 he became the youngest person and first black and the second America who got the Nobel Peace Prize.

Some day he had a speech is "I have a dream". In this speech he is talking about what he dreamed in his dream. He dreamed that all people black and white live together without any problem or discrimination. With this speech he end discrimination to black people. A speech was on TV on August 28, 1963. Many people hated him because the speech and because he was black.

Martin had the power to transform those steps that will forever be recognized.

He had a wife. Her name was Coretta Scott King. They had one daughter together. His wife was also for civil rights for black people. At the same time she was for women's rights, human rights...

After Martin's death she continued his work.

THE KU KLUX KLAN

This club was instituting in 1946. He had a lot of members between 3 and 6 million. They were all Christian. They fought for their rights. They were not for black people. They do not like them. They fought for people who did not want to live with black people with the equal rights.

JOE LOUIS

He belongs to the black people. He was the world boxing champion. He won a game to a famous boxer from Germany, Max Schmeling. He was also in the prison because once he do not want play game with some body and police took him to the prison.

ROSA PARKERS

She was normal black women who had a job. Every day she went to work by bus. One day when she went home suddenly bus was being to full and the driver of bus said her that she must stay because the white man can sit on her chair in the bus. She rejected him and the bus driver called the police. The police arrested her and black people did not agree.

THE BLACK PANTHERS

This group was it belongs to black people. They were protesters and they were fought for their human rights- being free. They were fought with police and with their dogs. One police of the panthers also killed the police by accident. Martin did not agree with them. He want that they stopped doing this but the black people thought that Martin trade them and they did not like him anymore.