

MARILYN MONROE

Forty years after her death it still isn't fully researched, if it was a suicide or she was murdered as some people say. They think she was murdered because of the love affair with the Kennedy brothers. Marilyn Monroe was born on the 1st of July 1926 in Los Angeles. She was born as Norma Jeane Baker. Her mother Gladys Baker, was working in studio, but she lost her job and moved to psychiatric hospital. Norma Jeane stayed in foster care, until year 1937, when she moved to a family friend. She first got married with 21-year old neighbour Jimmy Dougherty, but they weren't married very long because Jimmy joined the navy. Norma Jeane was discovered by a photographer David Conner. She was discovered when she had brown hair. In two years she became a model and she was also visiting acting lessons. Soon after that she signed her first contract with Twentieth Century Fox. Not long after that she colored her hair blond and changed name to Marilyn Monroe. The most famous movies of her were The Shocking Miss Pilgrim, Everything about Eva, Niagara, The Asphalt jungle, We are not married, Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and The seven Year Itch. She got a golden globe for a movie called Some like it hot. Then she became the biggest star of Hollywood. She wasn't only an actress. She also sang and wrote poems. She got married with a famous baseball star Joe DiMaggio, but they got divorced in 9 months. After that she moved to New York. She had her own company. In June 1956 she married Arthur Miller and they got divorced 4 years later. In her short career she filmed 30 movies. But on 5th of August year 1962 every thing ended. The biggest star of Hollywood of all times was found dead in her home because of an overdose of sleeping pills. The memory of the biggest diva is kept all around the world.
