SONGS

Every song has its own real-life story.

They talk about jealousy, injustice, love, unjust judging,
hope, beliefs, feelings, joy,...

Just some songs have a religious content,
even if it appears in the following two.

This is just a coincidence.

Playing GOD

Meaning of this song.:

- This song is about someone who always judges people and acts like he/she is the "god".
- When Hayley is saying "next time you point your finger, I'll point you to the mirror", means that they/she/he should stop judging them/her/him/us and look at themselves/himself/herself.

Let The Flames Begin

Meaning of the song.:

- About feeling really miserable and in despair and you just want to give up.
- At the same time something is telling you to hold on, have faith, and keep searching for something to hang on to.
- One day you will find that special thing and you will be able to keep your head up and keep being strong no matter how bad things get.
