Young Ronaldo

- Ronaldo's parents named him after the 40th president of America, Ronald Reagan
- He started to play soccer at the age of 3
- He played for an amateur team at the age of 8
- When he was 10, he was already getting famous in Portugal

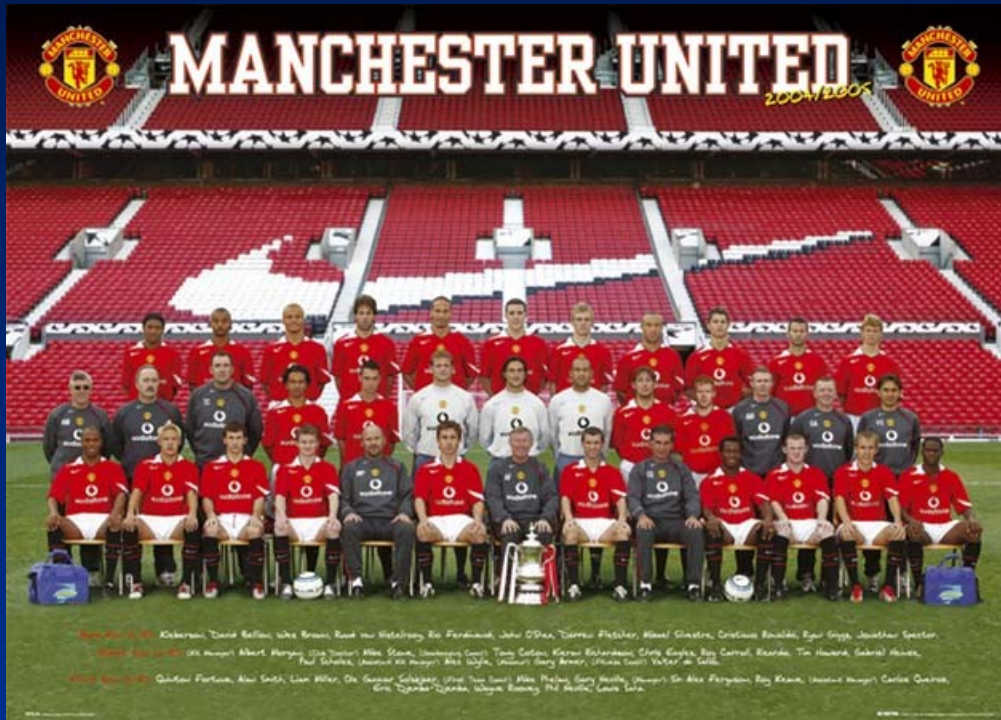

- Ronaldo started his professional career at Sporting Lisbon
- He was featured for Portugal in the UEFA Under 17 Championships
- He was first spotted by the former Liverpool F.C. manager Gérard Houllier at the age of 16
- Liverpool later rejected him because he was too young
- However he came to the attention of Sir Alex Ferguson in the summer of 2003, when Sporting Lisbon beat Manchester United 3–1

1st Year at ManU

- He played his first game in a 4-0 win against Bolton and scored his first goal for the club against Portsmouth in November 2003
- In his first season at the club he won the FA Cup as United thrashed Millwall 4-0 in the final at the Millennium Stadium

Ronaldo and Manchester United

- Cristiano was signed for a fee of £12.24 million for Manchester United in 2003 (at the age of 17)
- He was given the famous number 7 jersey to wear
- He scored 9 goals in the first year playing for ManU

2004/2005 and 2005/2006: Manchester United

- In October 2005, he scored the 100th Premier League goal for Man U
- Ronaldo scored in the Carling Cup Final against Wigan - his 10th goal of that season
- He received the FIFPro Special Young Player of the Year 2005 award, which was voted by the fans
- He was ranked on the No. 20 position in the FIFA Player of the Year 2005
- The Portuguese player signed a new contract with ManU that will keep him at the club until 2010

Yeah!

2006/2007: Manchester United

- By December 2006, Cristiano Ronaldo became one of Manchester United's most important players
- He scored his 50th goal for this team in the game against Manchester City, a goal that decided ManU to get the Premier League title for the first time in 4 years
- In April 2007, Ronaldo signed a new five-year, £120,000-a-week contract with ManU
- He became the highest-paid player in the football club's history

2007/2008: Manchester United

OUCH!

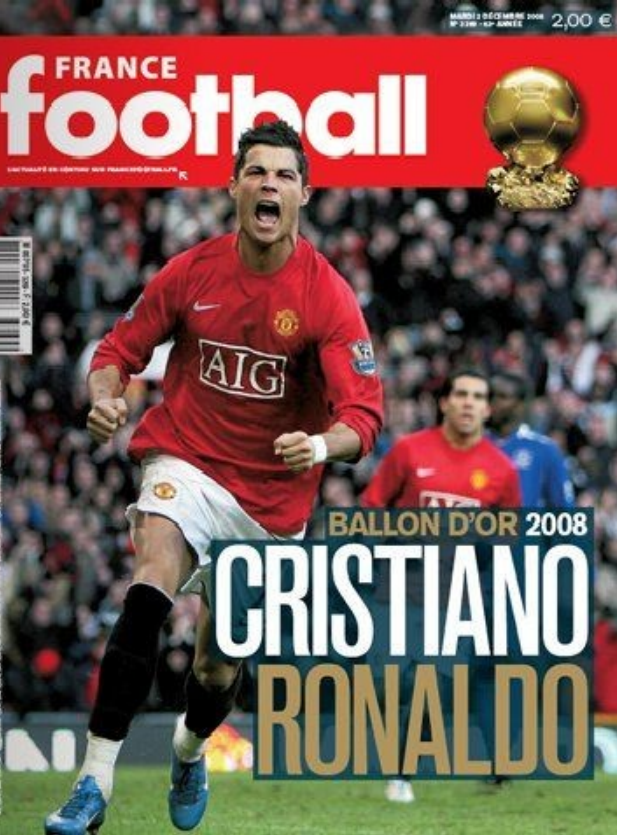

“GOOD = PAIN”

- On 12 January 2008, Cristiano Ronaldo scored his first hat trick (3 goals in one game) for ManU, during a game against Newcastle United bringing ManU to the top of the English Premier League table

On 19 March 2008, Ronaldo erased George Best's 40-year-old ManU record for the most goals scored by midfielder in one season (32 goals in the 1967/1968 season)

Ronaldo scored 42 goals that season. Newspapers reported that Real Madrid has offered to pay a world-record £100 million for Ronaldo.

Euro 2008

- Cristiano Ronaldo kicks off Euro 2008 in winning style as Portugal overcome Turkey
- Ronaldo scored a goal for Portugal to a second successive victory at Euro 2008 against Czech Republic (3-1 Portugal)
- Unfortunately, Portugal lost to Germany (3-1) during the quarter final
- Ronaldo scored only one goal during Euro 2008

European Player of the Year

- In May 2008, Cristiano Ronaldo was voted footballer of the year by English Football Writers' Association
- Ronaldo won the European footballer of the year in Dec 2008
- Ronaldo won the award after an excellent club season at ManU. (ManU won both the Premier League and the Champions League)
- He scored 42 goals in all competitions for the club
- Ronaldo is the fourth Manchester United player to win the award, but the first since George Best won the award in 1968
