

Srednja zdravstvena šola Ljubljana

What is a traffic accident?

Facts about traffic accidents

- Fact 1
- Fact 2
- Fact 3 Speeding
- Fact 4 Blood alcohol
- Fact 5 Helmets
- Fact 6 Seat-belts.
- Fact 7 Child restraints
- Fact 8 Pedestrians and cyclists

Most common injuries

- Face and Head Injuries
- Brain Injuries
- Neck Injuries
- Shoulder and Arm Injuries
- Back Injuries
- Leg, Knee and Foot Injuries
- Psychological Injuries
- Death

In Slovenia

- 300 car accident fatalities per year, which translates into about 23 per 100,000 people—very high and one of the highest in Europe.

Road traffic accidents by month of accident, Slovenia, average 2003-2006

Road traffic accidents resulting in serious injury or death and road traffic accidents resulting in material damage, Slovenia 2003-2006

Factors for causing a car accident

- 1. Equipment Failure
- 2. Roadway Design
- 3. Poor Roadway Maintenance
- 4. Driver Behavior

What must a driver involved in a traffic accident do

A driver involved in a traffic accident should stop if:

- anyone, other than themselves, is injured; or
- another vehicle, or someone else's property, is damaged; or
- an animal in another vehicle or running across the road is injured; or
- a bollard, street lamp or other item of street furniture is damaged.

- <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Y7lCM9ElUqQ>