

United Kingdom of Great Britain

The United Kingdom

- The UK is a state in northwest Europe.
- It is made up of four countries: England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

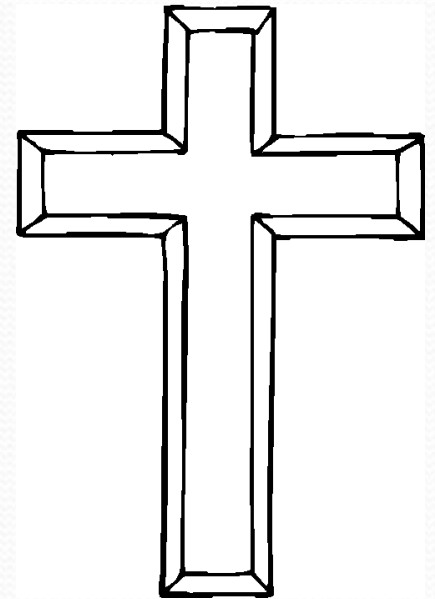

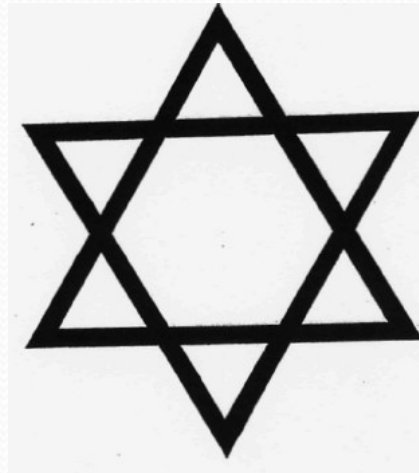

Languages

- Most people in the UK speak English, but there are 5 native languages other than English: Welsh, Gaelic, Scots, Irish and Cornish

Religions

- About 61 million people live in the UK.
- Its multi-religion country. The most popular religions are Christianity, Muslim and Jewish.

Cities

- The capital city is London with 8 million inhabitants.
- Other big cities are: Edinburgh, Cardiff, Belfast and Manchester.

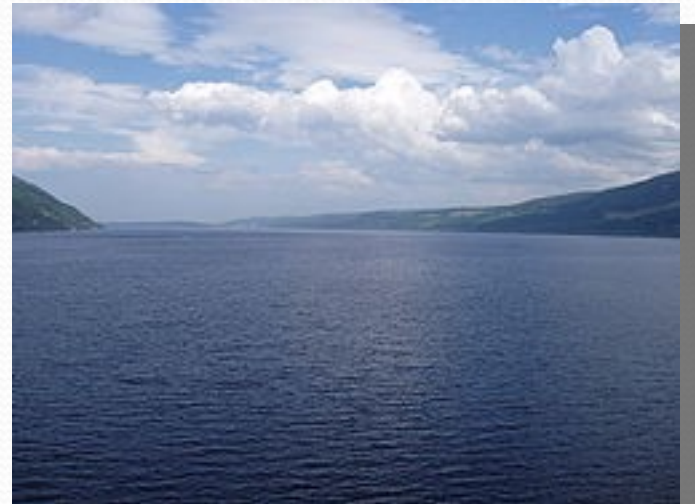

Sports

- Sports are very popular in the UK. The most popular sport is football. Other popular sports are cricket and rugby

Countryside

- The countryside of UK is very diverse.
- The highest mountain is Ben Nevis and its 1,344 m high.
- It is famous for its lakes and fields. The most famous lake is the Loch Ness.

National flowers

- The national flowers of UK are: shamrock is in Northern Ireland, daffodil in Wales and thistle in Scotland.

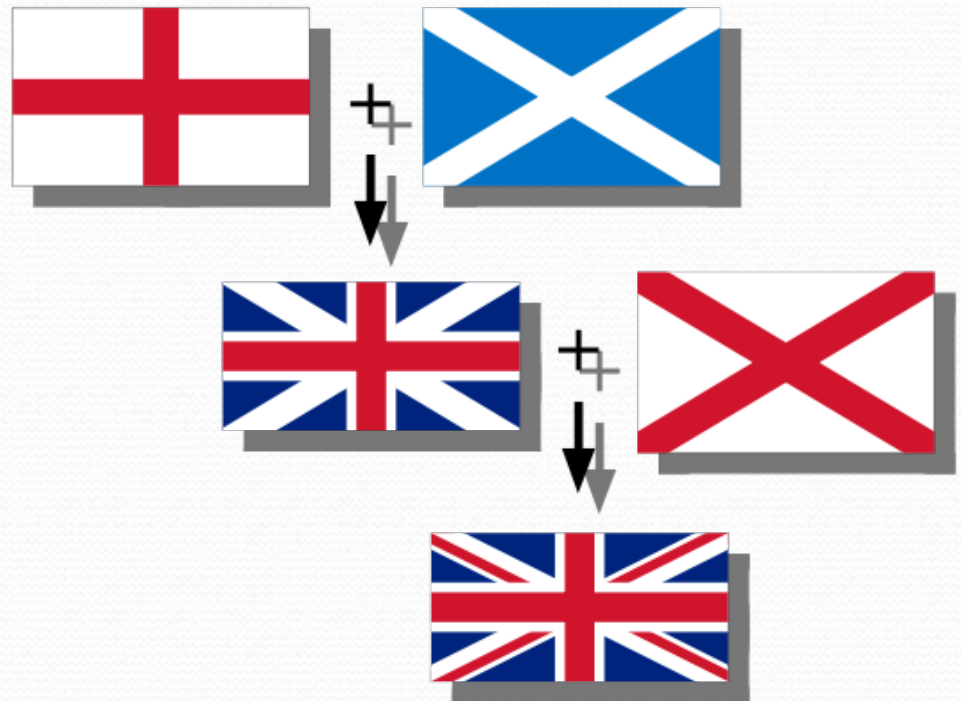

Traditional food

- Traditional breakfast is eggs, bacon, sausage and some beans.
- The most popular lunch is fish & chips.

Union Jack

- The United Kingdom national flag is called the Union Jack.
- It is made up from the flags of:
England, Scotland and Northern Ireland

Media

- The most popular TV channel is BBC, and the most popular newspaper is The Sun.

The logo for BBC London, featuring the letters 'BBC' in white on a red background, with 'LONDON' in white below it.

BBC
LONDON

The logo for The Sun newspaper, featuring the word 'Sun' in a large, white, stylized font with a red shadow, and 'THE' in a smaller, white, sans-serif font above it, all on a red background.

THE Sun

Education

- Primary education: (6-11)
- Secondary education: (11-18)
- Tertiary education: (18+)

- some schools in England require children to wear uniforms.

University

- Britain's most well known universities are the University of Cambridge, Oxford and London.

