

PHRASAL WORDS

- to blackout→a short period of unconsciousness
- to book (a room, plane, hotel,...)→to make an information, a reservation
- to come accross→to find by chance
- to come round→to pay an informal visit
- to fall out with smb→to have an argument
- to get on=get along→to have a good relationship
- to get over a disease→to recuperate
- to look after→to care for or be in charge of (someone or something)
- to look back→to remember what has happened in the past
- to look down on or look down your nose at someone or sth→ act as if you think the person is not as important as you are or the thing is not good enough
- to look for→to seek/sought/sought
- to look forward to→to feel pleasure that (sth) is going to happen
- to look in→go in or visit for a short time
- to look up to someone→to admire and respect someone
- to look out→to watch what is happening and be careful
- to look on/upon someone→to consider or think of (someone or sth) as sth else; to regard (someone or sth)
- to pass away→to die
- to pass out→to faint, to lose consciousness
- to put off↔to postpone↔to have sth. delayed
- to put up with sth→to tolerate
- to put somebody up→to give an accommodation to a person
- to run out (FINISH)→to finish or be finished; to be used completely
- to take after→to resemble someone
- to take part in a marathon
- to take place→to happen
- to take up→to start something
- to set off→to begin or to happen
- to show off = to boast→to talk about own's achievements, abilities with too much pride
- to walk out on smb→to leave smb
- to wrap up→to finish