

1. PUT THE VERBS IN BRACKETS INTO THE SUITABLE TENSE: present tense, past tense or past perfect

1) Yesterday at the theatre the curtain just (rise) when we (hear) a shout at the back of the theatre. The audience (look) round nervously.

2) I (run) into Tom last night. I (ask) him to join us for lunch the next day but he (say) he (have) lunch with Ann.

3) Joseph: You (see) that man at the corner of the street? He is a detective. He (watch) No. 24.

Josephine: How you (know) he (watch) No. 24?

Joseph: Because whenever anyone (come) out of, or (go) into the house, he (make) a note in his little book.

4) When I (get) to the airport this morning, I (realize) I (forget) my passport.

Tom: We (move) into our new house tomorrow.

Bill: But why you (leave) your present house? It (suit) you all.

Tom: Yes, it (do). But the workers (pull down) all the houses on this side of the street because they (try) to make the road wider.

2. WRITE THE FORMS OF THE FOLLOWING IRREGULAR VERBS

lie fight catch teach fall think feel lay draw tear

3. DESCRIBING PEOPLE: TRANSLATE INTO ENGLISH

- 1) Peter je srednje velik in rejen. Njegovi redki sivi lasje so polni prhljaja.
- 2) Povsem je zanemarjen, neobrit in neumit. Vedno je oblečen v iste strgane kavbojke in zmečkano srajco.
- 3) Oprijete črtaste majice ji ne pristojijo.
- 4) Poleti rada nosi oprijeta krila in natikače z visoko peto.
- 5) Iščemo žensko srednjih let, vitke postave in temne polti. Oblečena je v vrečaste kavbojke, karirasto bluzo in usnjeno jakno.

4. ADJECTIVES, DESCRIBING PEOPLE: TRANSLATE

JOSEPHINE

odločna

hvaležna

pozorna

velikodušna

prilagodljiva

JOSEPH

omahljiv

vihrav

pohlepen

neiskren

bahav

5. BEING A BUS DRIVER: write your opinion about this profession. Would you consider being a bus driver? Write 10 to 15 sentences.

6. MAKE MEANINGFUL SENTENCES WITH THE WORDS GIVEN:

on the dole to envy mundane to sympathize vague impetuous