Zakaj THE BIG APPLE

John Fitzgerald - 1913

THE Big Apple. The dream of every lad that ever threw a leg over a thoroughbred and the goal of all horsemen. There's only one Big Apple. That's New York.

TWO dusky stable hands were leading a pair of thoroughbreds around the "cooling rings" of adjoining stables at the Fair Grounds in New Orleans and engaging in a desultory conversation.

"Where y'all goin' from here?" queried one.

"From here we're headin' for 'The Big Apple,'" promptly replied the other.

"Well, you'd better fatten up them skinnies or all you'll get from the apple will be the core," was the quick rejoinder.
